

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Jeanette Scarborough knows the great worth and beauty of music in our everyday lives; and,

Whereas, Jeanette has been a music woman all her life, and after over a half century of performing at weddings, dances, and concerts, and also instructing and teaching music, she no doubt attributes some of her success in life to the soothing influence of song; and,

Whereas, Throughout the years, Jeanette has given so much of herself to the Dakota area, and it seems only right that this maker of melodies be rewarded and recognized for her fine achievement in the arts; and,

Whereas, For many years, Jeanette has shared her achievements in the field of music that gives comfort, solace, and joy to all that hear her play, and it is impossible to estimate how many lives she has touched by sharing with us her special gift; therefore, it is for this reason that Jeanette deserves our special praise and attention; and,

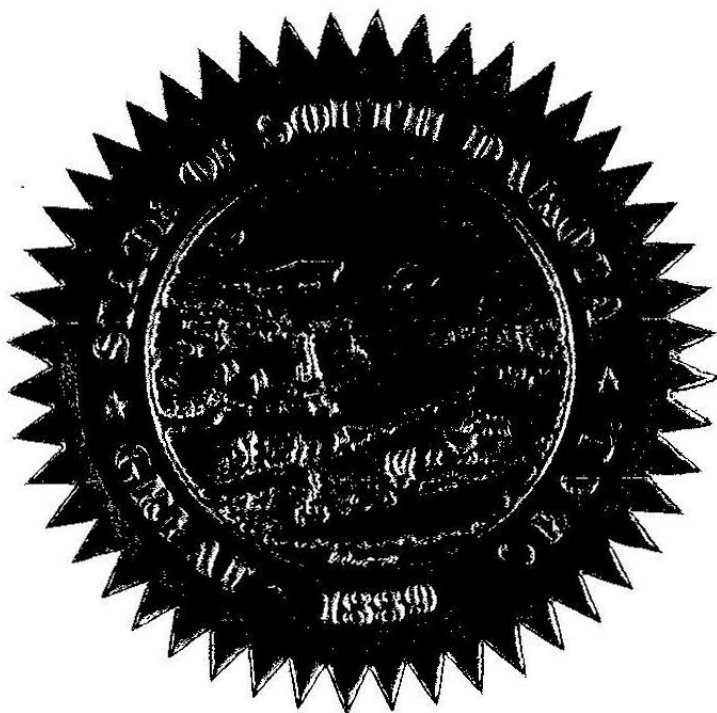

Whereas, Jeanette Scarborough has been chosen by the Dakota Musician's Association to be inducted into the Dakota Musician's Hall of Fame:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 12, 2005, as

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.
